COMPREHENSIVE PROJECT DESCRIPTION

Describe how the education/training is 9-1-1/public safety communications specific and how this will benefit E-911 and the employee(s) and/or PSAP.

Classes/seminars that are provided at the Virginia APCO/NENA conference are beneficial to communications personnel. There are different tracks provided and the employee has the option to choose what s/he would like to attend. This gives the employee the opportunity to learn about other areas within the emergency communications arena. For example, a dispatcher attends the conference and may have an interest in management. S/he could attend a management track and receive insight as to what the position entails. This conference benefits E911 as it provides personnel a chance to learn new things, generate new ideas, and bring that information back to the PSAP. There are also vendors at the conference and this allows personnel to see what is new and evolving in the communications field. The primary benefit of attending these conferences will be the ability to continue educating staff on the current best practices, as well as keeping personnel current on changing technologies, enhancements and requirements within the profession.

EVALUATION

Describe the evaluation process that will be used to determine if participation in this education/training benefited the PSAP and/or supported E-911 and GIS.

The goal will be to send two employees to the Virginia APCO and NENA Conferences that are held in the fall of 2018 and spring of 2019. Each employee attending the conferences will be required to attend offered tracks in their respective fields. Upon returning, each employee will share the information/classes that were attended and provide recommendations and suggestions that would be beneficial to the 911 Center.
