The Communications Office utilizes PowerPhone (EMD, EFD and EPD) program. PowerPhone offers online continued education studies that are beneficial to the Communications Officers (CO) in the performance of their duties. The subjects cover Medical, Fire and Law Enforcement; such as: Responding to communities in Turmoil, Structure Fires, Opioid Epidemic, Autism callers, and Crimes in Progress. There are other opportunities for the CO to attend courses in a classroom setting and share the knowledge with the other Communications Officers.
